

Report changes in the breeding stock

With the new Holsteiner Online member area, you have the opportunity to report changes in your breeding stock online. This works as follows:

Step 1: On the website www.holsteiner-verband.de you can access the "Menu" tab to the member area

Step 2: After successful registration with your 7-digit membership number and your password, the individual modules of the system will be displayed.

Registering a broodmare:

On the start page under "My activities", you can report mares as active for breeding by clicking on the "Make changes" button (Register horses). After the update, the mare will be listed in your active breeding stock.
